I. HISTORY

Carlyle Sailing Association is an Illinois Not-For-Profit Corporation formed in 1954 as Valley Sailing Association (VSA). The directors of VSA, aware of the shortcomings of the original location and the growth of sailboat racing, investigated sites at several of the lake projects being planned.

The most attractive site was Lake Carlyle. The lake consists of 26,000 acres of water, approximately 7 miles-long and 3 miles-wide. The site is located about 55 miles east of St. Louis, Missouri.

The directors of VSA spent hundreds of man-hours planning a new sailboat harbor. These efforts resulted in a lease agreement with the Illinois Department of Conservation for the present location. In the spring of 1971, the VSA Corporation moved two-thirds of its membership and assets to Carlyle Lake.

Paved boat parking, three jib cranes and 400 feet of dock comprised the major site facilities at the time of occupation. The building complement included a house trailer for the harbormaster, a utility shed, and a “his” and “hers” privy.

Through the judicious balance of income and expenditure and participation by the membership, the amenities at CSA have expanded through the years. In 1973 a three-pod pavilion structure was completed. Nineteen seventy-four saw the installation of a rest room/shower facility by the State of Illinois. The harbormaster moved into a new residence in 1975 and an observation building providing shelter from the elements was erected in 1976. Over the years, barbecue pits, children's play area, landscaping, expansion of docks and cabin boat-parking areas, and beach facilities for catamarans were added. Facility improvements in 1994 included: enlarging the rest room/shower building, adding bath rooms, finishing the basement of the Observation Building, adding a new Storage Building, and dredging the harbor. In 2001, the club completed a major addition to the Observation Building by enlarging the upstairs dining area/meeting room, adding a downstairs classroom, installing an elevator, and upgrading the kitchen facilities.

Since the club's founding in 1971, at least one national one-design racing class has requested CSA to host its districts, national or international regatta each year. The Flying Scot North American Championship regatta was held for the fifth time at CSA in 2004 with 62 boats participating in the regatta. In 2006 CSA hosted the Formula 18 North American Nationals with 40 boats from around the country participating.

The 1976 Championship of Champions regatta, sponsored by the United States Yacht Racing Union (now US SAILING), first brought CSA to national attention. The following year Yachting Magazine held its “One-of-A-Kind” Regatta at CSA; the first time in over 20 years an inland lake had been chosen for that event.

In 1984, the club initiated a weeklong Junior Sailing camp. The camp has grown through the years and spawned the Carlyle Junior Sailing Association (CJSA) in 2001. The CJSA is a subsidiary organization under the direction of CSA that encompasses a number of harbors at Carlyle Lake. The CJSA teaches sailing skills to juniors between the ages of 10 and 16 years old.

In October 1993, CSA hosted the United States Sailing Association's Championship of Champions Regatta for the second time.

CSA was the site of the 1994 U.S. Olympic Festival, the primary development vehicle for U.S. Olympic sailing teams. Forty-two sailors competed in Men's and Women's Mistral sailboards and Open Lasers during the five-day event. This sailing event drew over 4,000 spectators, the largest crowd in U.S. Olympic Festival history.

In 1995, CSA became a charter member of the Carlyle Lake Association (CLA), an organization of above the dam people dedicated to working with each other and with below the dam interests to benefit sailing, power boating, farming, hunting, camping and fishing. During the 2009 sailing season, 165 CSA members were also members of CLA.

In 1999, CSA first offered a three-day Adult Learn-to-Sail camp. This camp uses both classroom and on the water training to teach the fundamentals of sailing to adults. The Adult Learn-to-Sail camp has continued to grow in popularity each year. Every year since 1999, a three-day adult sailing camp has been conducted to meet the demand for training.

Each year CSA hosts the Whale-of-a-Sail regatta in September. This is generally CSA's largest regatta of the year. The Whale-of-a-Sail is a multi-class, two-day regatta that attracts over a 100 boats each year.

CSA, with assistance from Carlyle Yacht Club and Boulder Yacht Club, held its first Leukemia Cup Regatta in 2001. The Leukemia Cup Regatta is a fun filled multi-class regatta organized to raise research funds for the Leukemia Society. Historically, first time events raise an average of $15,000. CSA's first time in hosting this regatta raised over $35,000 in contributions for the Leukemia Society Foundation. CSA has continued to host the Leukemia Cup Regatta every year since 2001. As of 2009, the Leukemia Cup Regattas held at CSA have raised nearly $500,000. CSA members are very proud of this accomplishment.

In 2003, CSA established a 501C-3 program called Carlyle Youth Sailing School (CYSS). This enabled tax-deductible donations to CYSS by individuals for the benefit and advancement of junior sailors.

Since 1971, CSA has continued to grow. At the end of the 2009 sailing season, CSA had over 275 members and 165 boats registered in the club.

II. MISSION STATEMENT AND PHILOSOPHY

A. Mission Statement

Carlyle Sailing Association strives to be the best inland lake sailing organization by establishing and maintaining:

- A family oriented, low cost, world-class sailing facility for one design, multihull, and small cruising sailing craft.
- Superior junior and adult training programs in sailing, seamanship, and racing.
- Excellent club and regatta racing programs in compliance with the rules and latest developments of United States Sailing Association (US SAILING) and the International Sailing Federation.
- Popular social events for sailors and their friends in support of the above activities.

B. Philosophy

Organizational memberships are available on a yearly basis to any sailboat owner whose craft fits within the physical limitations of the CSA facility. Participation in CSA activities is open to all sailing enthusiasts subject to certain entry conditions that meet our physical limitations, our obligations to the State of Illinois and the US Army Corps of Engineers, and the requirements of the United States Amateur Sports Act (the Ted Stevens Act) and prescriptions of US SAILING.

The Board of Directors, plus a cadre of Line Officers and its staff of Committee Chairpersons govern the Carlyle Sailing Association. All of these individuals are chosen from within the membership.

The thirteen person Board of Directors is comprised of nine board appointees plus the Commodore and three persons elected by the Association's membership. The Board is responsible for all legal obligations and business needs of the association, relations with our governmental overseers, and establishment of association policy within the context of needs and desires of the association.

The line officers consist of a Commodore and a Vice Commodore who are elected annually by the CSA membership. They shall manage the everyday affairs of CSA in accordance with the policies set forth by the Board of Directors. The line officers are responsible for establishing various committees to care for the association facilities and execute the association activities in accordance with CSA policy. They are encouraged to make recommendations to the Board through the Commodore to improve association operation and activities.

Each boat-owner member of the association may nominate and vote for the line officers, and nominate and vote for the elected Board members. All members of the association may volunteer for a committee chair.

The Carlyle Sailing Association is an Illinois Not-For-Profit Corporation. The success of the corporation stems from determination to provide a low cost racing, sailing facility for family use. We (you and I) hold the responsibility for the operation of CSA, including its growth, maintenance, government, and the quality of the sailing program.
